Glen Baxter Calendar 1987 Glen Baxter, 1986-08-05 A Eucharist-shaped Church Marshall E. Crossnoe, Daniel J. Handschy, Donna R. Hawk-Reinhard, 2022-03-02 A Eucharist shaped Church Prayer Theology Mission is a historical theological survey of major movements and thinkers that have shaped sacramental theology and liturgical worship within the Anglican Episcopal tradition The contributors attend closely to the interplay between Christian thinking praying and living in order to distil lessons for liturgical revision and worship renewal Each chapter explores a major thinker or movement and explores how the theological liturgical ecclesiological and missiological commitments of the thinker or movement interacted and shaped the thinker's or movement's overall thought This serves a two fold purpose 1 Much scholarship about Anglican eucharistic theology treats some aspect of that theology in isolation presence sacrifice etc from other aspects and from the context in which the theology was developed This approach shows how these various aspects and contexts in fact have mutual explanatory power 2 The interaction of these various aspects of eucharistic theology provide a framework for those involved in liturgical revision to think through the commitments communicated by the proposed revisions By the Numbers Jessica Marie Otis, 2024 During the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries English numerical practices underwent a complex transformation with wide ranging impacts on English society At the beginning of the early modern period English men and women believed that God had made humans universally numerate although numbers were not central to their everyday lives Over the next two centuries rising literacy rates and the increasing availability of printed books revolutionized modes of arithmetical practice and education Ordinary English people began to use numbers and quantification to explain abstract phenomena as diverse as the relativity of time the probability of chance events and the constitution of human populations These changes reflected their participation in broader early modern European cultural and intellectual developments such as the Reformation and the Scientific Revolution By the eighteenth century English men and women still believed they lived in a world made by God but it was also a world made and made understandable by numbers LaSalle Bank Guide Illinois 2006-2007 ,2006 Who's Who of American Women 2004-2005 Inc.
