Library, 1980 Aguecheek's Beef, Belch's Hiccup, and Other Gastronomic Interjections Robert Appelbaum, 2008-09-15 We didn't always eat the way we do today or think and feel about eating as we now do But we can trace the roots of our own eating culture back to the culinary world of early modern Europe which invented cutlery haute cuisine the weight loss diet and much else besides Aguecheek's Beef Belch's Hiccup tells the story of how early modern Europeans put food into words and words into food and created an experience all their own Named after characters in Shakespeare's Twelfth Night this lively study draws on sources ranging from cookbooks to comic novels and examines both the highest ideals of culinary culture and its most grotesque ridiculous and pathetic expressions Robert Appelbaum paints a vivid picture of a world in which food was many things from a symbol of prestige and sociability to a cause for religious and economic struggle but always represented the primacy of materiality in life Peppered with illustrations and a handful of recipes Aguecheek's Beef Belch's Hiccup will appeal to anyone interested in early modern literature or the history of food

The Idea of the PhD Frances Jennifer Kelly, 2016-12-19 The Idea of the PhD The doctorate in the twenty first century imagination analyses the PhD as it is articulated in diverse areas of contemporary discourse at a time in which the degree is undergoing growth change and scrutiny worldwide It considers not just institutional ideas of the PhD but those of the broader cultural and social domain as well as asking whether and to what extent the idea of the Doctor of Philosophy the highest achievable university award is being reimaged in the twenty first century In a world where the PhD is undergoing significant radical change and where inside universities doctoral enrolments are continually climbing as the demand for more graduates with high level research skills increases this book asks the following questions How do we understand how the PhD is currently imagined and conceptualised in the wider domain Where will we find ideas about the PhD from its purpose to the nature of research work undertaken and the kinds of pedagogies engaged to the researchers who undertake it and are shaped by it International in scope this is a text that explores the culturally inflected representation of the doctorate and its graduates in the imagination literature and media The Idea of the PhD contributes to the research literature in the field of doctoral education and higher education As such this will be a fascinating text for researchers postgraduates and academics interested in the idea of the university Food History Sylvie Vabre, Martin Bruegel, Peter J. Atkins, 2021-05-17 This pioneering book elevates the senses to a central role in the study of food history because the traditional focus upon food types quantities and nutritional values is incomplete without some recognition of smell touch sight hearing and taste Eating is a sensual experience Every day and at every meal the senses of smell touch sight hearing and taste are engaged in the acts of preparation and consumption And yet these bodily acts are ephemeral their imprint upon the source material of history is vestigial Hitherto historians have shown little interest in the senses beyond taste and this book fills that research gap Four dimensions are treated Words Symbols and Uses Describing the Senses an investigation of how specific vocabularies for food are developed Industrializing the Senses an analysis of the fundamental change in the sensory qualities of foods under the pressure of industrialization and economic forces outside the control of the household and the artisan producer Nationhood and the Senses an exploration of how the combination of the senses and food play into how nations saw themselves and how food was a signature of how political ideologies played out in practical everyday terms Food Senses and Globalization an examination of links between food the senses and the idea of international significance Putting all of the senses on the agenda of food history for the first time this is the ideal volume for scholars of food history food studies and food culture as well as social and cultural historians Putting all of the senses on the agenda of food history for the first time this is the ideal volume for scholars of food history food studies and food culture as well as social and cultural historians National Union Catalog, 1981 ,1982 The Art of Preserving Jacqueline Wejman, 1983 Covers butters chutneys conserves jams jellies marmalades preserves honey preserves pickles relishes and other desserts and sauces Subject Catalog, 1981 Library of Congress, 1981 Library Catalog of the Metropolitan Museum of Art Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.).
