knew she was different Born with an aura too bright for this world and a heart tuned to other realms she wandered through life without guidance until a Watcher crossed the veil He wasn't sent to love her He was sent to observe report and remain untouched But the moment Kaelion stepped through her portal fate rewrote itself What began as teachings circles drawn in heat symbols etched in fire turned into a divine romance that broke the rules of Heaven itself Their love was secret

Forbidden And when the other Watchers found out chaos followed From candlelit bedrooms to alien choked oceans from ancient arguments to spiritual assassinations Zhara walks the thin line between realms Her body holds celestial power Her presence shifts destinies And her love it's addictive eternal and deadly Now exiled awakened and hunted she must return to the portal she once sealed not just for love but to deliver a warning The veil is thinning The divine is restless and Earth is not ready
