Finding Our Unity In The Scriptures

Helen Dare, Simon Patrick Woodman

Finding Our Unity In The Scriptures:

Finding Our Unity in the Scriptures Joel W. Huffstetler, 2005-09-15 This book grew out of a Bible Conference at Kanuga Conference Center in October 2004 led by Dr George L Carey the 103rd Archbishop of Canterbury Archbishop Carey's theme was the life and ministry of St Paul with a focus on the Letter to the Ephesians I was privileged to serve as a workshop leader and preacher during the conference and I chose as the theme of my workshop to study St Paul and reconciliation using Ephesians as our primary text The main thrust of the workshop was to study selected passages from Ephesians in detail and to look to St Paul's writings for guidance regarding reconciliation in the Body of Christ We live in a time when there is such a pressing need in the Church for reconciliation a rekindling of a spirit of love and mutual respect rather than the judgment and suspicion which all too often characterize relations among Christians who find themselves in disagreement with one another regarding the divisive issues of our time This book advocates a renewed realization that in Jesus Christ what unites us as Christians is far greater than what divides us These essays on selected passages from Ephesians and the concluding essay The Way Forward are offered in the cause of reconciliation They are suitable for study by individuals as well as parish and diocesan study groups seeking reconciliation in the Church Study questions are presented at the end of each chapter to foster reflection and discussion I welcome this book as an offering to us all It presents one means for discovering a receptive stance to God's will for us even in the midst of the harsh rhetoric and self-justifying proclamations of our day I am grateful to Joel Huffstetler for his contribution to the forming of an attitude of the heart committed to reconciliation From the Afterword by The Rt Rev Charles G vonRosenberg Bishop of East Tennessee

Losing Your Religion, Finding Your Faith Brett Hoover, 1998 In this lively challenging book Brett Hoover says that the typical young adult loss of faith is a necessary part of maturing spirituality faith can grow only when religion is doubted lost and found again in a new light Using the metaphor of a road trip Hoover describes the lifelong process of discovering both God and self Losing your religion is just one necessary obstacle on the road to a holistic spirituality Finding Our Voice Neil Glover, 2024-04-30 Beneath all the anxieties about church decline and strategies to reverse that this book speaks to a problem that has not been addressed why is it that mainstream churches Anglican Methodist Baptist and Presbyterian have been particularly affected by the secular age And how might they be renewed It argues that these churches need to focus less on restructuring and closures and instead recover a sense of authenticity in the gospel they believe in their vision of human flourishing their diversity their passion for justice and their unique ability to connect with local communities Too often mainline churches are perceived as worthy but also profoundly unexciting This book explores the centuries old roots of this perceived boredom and how the church can more often become a place of inspiration and of encounter with God Finding Our Voice calls on all kinds of resources that can help refresh the church's self-expression in engagement with the scriptures with art music and poetry in searching for a better language that remains true to the church's core identity and resonates

The "plainly Revealed" Word of God? Helen Dare,Simon Patrick Woodman,2011 In January 2009 an international group of Baptist theologians met in Cardiff UK for a colloquium to explore the theory and practice of Baptist hermeneutics Drawing primarily from the British Baptist community the group s work was enhanced by insights from participants from the USA and Eastern Europe Participants brought a diversity of scholarly and pastoral interests to the colloquium and through presentation and discussion explored together the nature of Baptist hermeneutics The resulting volume addresses five core thematic areas The first section surveys the way in which Baptists have engaged with the Bible both in their early history and more recent past Section two analyses some specific examples of Baptist hermeneutics in practice while the third section turns attention to an exploration of theoretical approaches to the hermeneutical task in Baptist contexts The problem of how to negotiate interpretative difference within Baptist reading communities is addressed in the fourth section Finally concluding responses to the project from two non Baptist theologians challenge both contributors and readers to consider the wider implications of the volume for contemporary Baptist life The Exegete and homiletic monthly, ed. by J.
