Delivering Authentic Arts Education with Student Resource Access 12 Months Judith Dinham, 2016-08-23. This practical text helps student teachers develop their confidence, understandings and skills so that they can effectively and authentically teach arts in primary and middle school classrooms. Delivering Authentic Arts Education outlines the true nature of arts education and its importance in the curriculum, emphasising the arts as forms of creative activity, meaning-making and expression in a cultural context. Chapters discuss how to recognise and build on your existing artistic abilities and pedagogical skills, how to encourage children's creativity, how to lead arts appreciation experiences, and the general principles of planning and assessment. They then examine the five arts areas: dance, drama, media arts, music, and visual arts. The final part of the text contains sample learning activities and resources that demonstrate how to plan an effective lesson within a unit of inquiry. Practical tips, classroom snapshots, starter ideas, and suggestions for online resources show you the links between theory and practice so you can develop arts education experiences that are purposeful, stimulating, and engaging for everyone. Publisher's summary: New Zealand Books in Print, 1998. Changing Times Jenny Carlyon, Diana Morrow, 2014-02-01. From the golden weather of postwar economic growth through the globalization, economic challenges, and protest of the 1960s and 1970s to the free market revolution and new immigrants of the 1980s and 1990s and beyond, this account is the most complete and comprehensive history of New Zealand since 1945. It illustrates the chronological and social history of the country with the engaging stories of real individuals and their experiences. Leading historians Jennifer Carlyon and Diana Morrow discuss in great depth New Zealand's move toward nuclear-free status, its embrace of a small state free market ideology, and the seeming rejection of its citizens of a society known for the worship of averages. Stories of pirate radio in Auckland's Hauraki Gulf, the first DC8 jets landing at Mangere airport, feminists liberating pubs, public protests over the closing of post offices, and indigenous language nests vividly demonstrate how a postwar society
