For Every Child A Better World:

For Every Child, a Better World Louise Gikow, Ellen Weiss, 1993 Explains the basic rights of children and that all children do not live a life in which their needs are met

For Every Child a Better World Louise Gikow, 2001 Inspired by the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child this book introduces readers to the fact that many children in the world do not have access to medicine clean water clean air enough food or a safe place to live

Literacy for a Better World Laura Schneider VanDerPloeg, 2012-08-10 This book brings literacy research and culturally relevant pedagogy together to offer a comprehensive vision of what socially just teaching looks like in the secondary English classroom The author an experienced professional developer and teacher provides a powerful framework for analyzing classroom instruction with regard to ideals of stance relevance access identity and agency Chapters provide models that have worked in real classrooms including a model for developing units of study in social justice The final chapter addresses how educational leaders can create conditions for socially just teaching and learning in today's diverse schools This book features a focus on the challenges teachers are likely to face particularly in schools with struggling disengaged students strategies for responding to critical moments in the classroom lesson plans and vignettes from urban schools and leadership principles for putting socially just teaching into action

17 Big Bets for a Better World Stig Tackmann, Kristian Kampmann, Henrik Skovby, 2016-11-19 The adoption of the 2030 UN Sustainable Development Goals was a landmark for the global community and our global sustainability Now one year after the initiation of the goals it is time to really start thinking about implementing and realizing the new global agenda And it already obvious that traditional thinking will not suffice To reach the new global goals by 2030 there is a pressing need to think creatively and innovatively The annual investment gap amounts to US 2.5 trillion and the shortcoming of sufficient funding requires smart solutions leverage of private sector capital and inclusion of civil society in new ways The idea behind this book is to allow some of the world's most renowned thought leaders to provide their perspectives on how we collectively reach the global goals From an artist and a Michelin chef to a bank president and a Nobel Peace Prize winner this book presents innovative bold and credible solutions to the challenges we face as humanity Contributors include Julia Gillard Australia's 27th Prime Minister between 2010 and 2013 Nandan Nilekani Varad Pande Nandan Nilekani is Chairman of the Unique Identification Authority of India Varad Pande is Partner and Co Lead of Financial Inclusion at Dalberg Dan Barber Chef of Blue Hill a restaurant in Manhattan's West Village Ashish J Thakkar James I Mwangi Ashish J Thakkar founded his first business in 1996 at the age of 15 James I Mwangi is Executive Director of the Dalberg Group Angel Gurr a Secretary General of the OECD since June 2006 Fabiola Gianotti The first female Director General of CERN Mogens Lykketoft President of the UN General Assembly's 70th session running from September 2015 to September 2016 Jamie Drummond Co founder of ONE a global pressure group which fights against the injustice of extreme poverty Jacqueline Novogratz Founded and directed the Philanthropy Workshop and the Next Generation Leadership programs at the

Thukral,2020-11-29 Despite some acknowledgement over the years of the significance of seeing children as rights holders children's concerns continue to run the risk of not being considered political and mainstream they continue to be viewed as extensions of adults or simply as members of families and communities This when the reality is that children are citizens the minute they are born and entitled to as much attention if not more than adults given their age and vulnerability Concerned with the mainstreaming of children's interests in policy making this book raises such questions as What is good governance vis vis children What are the standards and indicators Can there be one answer for this question that is applicable to all countries In order to arrive at a better understanding of what good governance for children means and how the realization of the political cultural social and civil rights of children may be achieved the book draws on the diverse and yet comprehensive body of knowledge that has developed over the years from initiatives taken by organisations across the world who work with policy makers to make governance systems more accountable and responsive to the well being of children as citizens in themselves simultaneously empowering children to take part in decision making processes that impact their lives

Chicken Soup for the Soul Stories for a Better World Jack Canfield,Mark Victor Hansen,2012-09-11 101 of the most uplifting stories you've ever read about people reaching out stepping up and transforming their lives and the world around them My fight for a better world Hülya Rinscheid,2023-11-21 Fatma grows up in poor circumstances in Turkey and experiences what it is like to be the child of a guest worker in Germany Not only her own Turkish culture but also that of her host country becomes foreign to her She doesn't feel at home anywhere not least because she and her mother keep commuting between Germany and Turkey Fatma cannot find peace Women's disenfranchisement chadors and forced marriages on the one hand freedom of movement dress codes and personal freedoms on the other And is Christianity so different from Islam Do Christians really live more freely In an adventurous way Fatma escapes forced marriages several times which is definitely tinged with humor Will she manage to unite the two cultures for herself Philosophy for a Better World Floris Van Den Berg,2013-06-04 After reading this book the world won't look the same Imagine yourself confined to a wheelchair or living within the severely constricted lifestyle options of a woman in Saudi Arabia or being a homosexual in a homophobic society or a coffee farmer in Ethiopia or a cow on a factory farm or growing up impoverished in a developing country or living 500 years from now when future generations may be negatively impacted by what we do today This compelling thought experiment invites readers to take a moral journey which in turn leads to an inconvenient evaluation of the way most of us live The author proposes a new perspective called universal subjectivism which can be adopted by anyone regardless of religious or philosophical orientation It takes into consideration the universal capacity for suffering and through raising awareness seeks to diminish that suffering and increase happiness With consistent and crystal clear moral reasoning van den Berg shows that the world can be organized to ensure more pleasure beauty justice happiness health freedom animal welfare and sustainability He emphasizes that today the near term future is our greatest challenge our affl

Parenting for a Better World Susanna Snyder ,Ellen Ott Marshall,2022-05-24 Living faithfully isn't about attending church Being Christian is about living in right just relationships with other people and the rest of creation How can Christian parents avoid being overcome with the pressure to be a perfect parent and make a difference in the world Parenting for a Better World shows there are all sorts of ways we can make a real difference from within our own homes Even busy parents can work with their families for global justice Without pressing you to do it all this book offers spiritual resources for reflecting on the relationship between your faith your calling for justice and your commitment to parenting Find encouragement from fellow parents who weave together stories of caregiving activism and scripture that affirm your sense of calling Plus it offers practical strategies to help committed and over committed people integrate caregiving and justice work into their daily lives Protect the promise: equal access and opportunity for every woman, child and adolescent.
