noticing it sometimes noticing and triumphant be openly laughed at by his victims and in the senselessness of his thirst for money he rose to the heights of poetry But giving up so much strength to this hunt after the rouble he was not greedy in the narrow sense and sometimes he even betrayed an inconceivable but sincere indifference to his property Once when the ice was drifting down the Volga he stood on the shore and seeing that the ice was breaking his new barge having crushed it against the bluff shore he ejaculated That s it Again Crush it Now once more Try Well Ignat asked his friend Mayakin coming up to him the ice is crushing about ten thousand out of your purse eh That s nothing I ll make another hundred But look how the Volga is working Eh Fine She can split the whole world like curd with a knife Look look There you have my Boyarina She floated but once Well we ll have mass said for the dead The barge was crushed into splinters Ignat and the godfather sitting in the tavern on the shore drank vodka and looked out of the window watching the fragments of the Boyarina drifting down the river together with the ice Are you sorry for the vessel Ignat asked Mayakin Why should I be sorry for it The Volga gave it to me and the Volga has taken it back It did not tear off my hand Nevertheless What nevertheless It is good at least that I saw how it was all done It s a lesson for the future But when my Volgar was burned I was really sorry I didn t see it How beautiful it must have looked when such a woodpile was blazing on the water in the dark night Eh It was an enormous steamer Weren t you sorry for that either The Sewanee Review ,1902 The Man Who was Afraid Maxim Gorky,2019-03-04 Excerpt About sixty years ago when fortunes of millions had been made on the Volga with fairy tale rapidity Ignat Gordyeeff a young fellow was working as water pumper on one of the barges of the wealthy merchant Zayev Built like a giant handsome The New England Magazine ,1905 Delphi Collected Works of John Cowper Powys (Illustrated) John Cowper Powys,2025-11-07 Regarded as a successor to Thomas Hardy John Cowper Powys was a Welsh novelist and essayist known chiefly for his long panoramic novels including the masterpieces Wolf Solent and A Glastonbury Romance In his series of Wessex Novels landscape plays a principal role as does the elemental philosophy of his intriguing characters lives He also wrote a critically acclaimed series of Welsh Novels noted for their rich mythological and fantasy elements This eBook presents Powys collected works with numerous illustrations rare texts informative introductions and the usual Delphi bonus material Version 1 Beautifully illustrated with images relating to Powys life and works Concise introductions to the major texts All 11 novels in the US public domain with individual contents tables Rare novels appearing for the first time in digital publishing Images of how the books were first published giving your eReader a taste of the original texts Excellent formatting of the texts Rare short stories available in no other collection Includes Powys rare poetry collection Seminal non fiction Ordering of texts into chronological order and genres Please note due to US copyright restrictions five novels several short stories and two non fiction works cannot appear in this edition When new works enter the public domain they will be added to the collection as a free update CONTENTS A Wessex Novel Wolf Solent 1929 The Welsh Novels Morwyn 1937 Owen Glendower 1941 Porius 1951 Other Novels Wood and Stone 1915 Rodmoor 1916 Ducdame 1925 Atlantis 1954 The Brazen
