For Love Of Leander A Romance:

For Love of Leander Henry A. Buchanan,2001-12 In the old myth Leander loved the goddess Hero and he tried to swim the Hellespont to reach her But the goddess dwelt on the top of Olympus the mountain of the gods and the waters of the Hellespont were rough and Leander drowned In this modern myth Leander is a young man who aspired to greatness for he would capture the essence of Apollo the god of Light and Truth But our modern Leander is caught in the choppy waters of an unhappy marriage to the fanatical Heloise and the tragic love affair with the beautiful Marian It seems that he will perish altogether in the violent waters The Reverend Doctor Townsend is the father of Heloise He does not tolerate either divorce or infidelity Marian s father is even more intolerant of Leander s behavior With such fatherly disapproval Leander whose own father died early is in trouble No good can come of this entanglement even though Professor Embers believes that Leander has great promise as an epic poet That promise never realized is all that supports Leander struggling in the waves he himself has made Only Heloise in her fanatical zeal dares to hope
