Elizabeth Major:

Elizabeth Major Elizabeth Major, Robert C. Evans, 2003 Elizabeth Major was inspired to write Honey on the Rod 1656 as a result of lameness brought on by a bout of fever in her mid twenties The experience left her fiercely devoted to her Christian religion but also filled with indignation against the sins of nominal Christians Honey on the Rod was written to comfort the afflicted and afflict the comfortable The work is in two parts The first is a lengthy prose meditation in the form of a dialogue between a Soul and Consolation The second is a sequence of poems on conventional Calvinistic themes scourging common vices and praising the humble soul that accepts God's rod of affliction The speaking voice of Honey on the Rod is unmistakably that of a woman and as such the work contributes a woman's voice to the devotional literature dominated by men in the seventeenth century This facsimile edition reproduces the copy held in the British Library

The Trappers Promise Bronwyn Trotter, 2019-01-04 Bronwyn Trotter's The Trappers Promise is a hard hitting Novel set in the wilds of the Rockies where only the toughest of women can survive Born on a mountain in the Rockies where wolves are hunted for their valuable skins Sarah Cole has to contend with trapping wolves and nineteen trappers Four of whom have made a promise to her father to look out for her if he should be killed When her father dies during a card game she loses her winter home Mountain View Lodge and is thrust into the care of the trappers Finding that men are now looking at her more as a woman than a trapper Sarah finds battling vicious wolves is far easier than dealing with them and a wealthy rancher Major Hardy trying to stop her from becoming friendly with his son Frank Major Hardy's idea of a wife for Frank is Millicent Crawley daughter of the general store owner Sarah will do what she has to even if it means using the wolves to get her son stolen from her by his grandfather back to her
