

essentials of ASTROLOGICAL ANALYSIS

MARC EDMUND JONES

Here is a wonderfully complete exposition of the astrological horoscope. For the first time in print it presents the whole-view approach, by stellar art, to an understanding of human personality in each unique pattern of its potentials. By a fundamentally simple sifting out of the more pertinent factors of individual character, as astrology provides a practical way for doing this, the baffling complexity of man's make-up is brought to an effective ordering. The method, by avoiding the confusion of needless side issues and irrelevant generalities, contributes to incisive analysis and thus facilitates exceptionally dependable advice.

The horoscopes of a hundred and seventy-four well-known people are used to illustrate the techniques.

The over-all orientation of any given person is seen in (1) the general shaping of his life interest as this often is directed primarily to people or events or ideas, (2) his facility in adjustment to basic realities as a matter of his bowl, bucket, bundle.
