McEvoy Magazine ,1912 Seasons Fran Carona PhD,2015-06-10 Just as there are predictable seasons of the year there are also common passages in life through which we all pass Each season has its own beauty and its own danger its own challenges and rewards There are tasks we must master in each season if we are to move successfully to the next We need a Guide to help us navigate these seasons We need someone who has walked the path ahead of us who knows where the landmines are and who can lead us safely to our final destination We need the One who has ordained all our days before there was ever one of them Psalm 139 16 We need Jesus the One who knows us intimately and loves us unconditionally

Ellavut / Our Yup'ik World and Weather Ann Fienup-Riordan,Alice Rearden,2013-08-27 Ellavut Our Yup ik World and Weather is a result of nearly ten years of gatherings among Yup ik elders to document the qanruyutet words of wisdom that guide their interactions with the environment In an effort to educate their own young people as well as people outside the community the elders discussed the practical skills necessary to live in a harsh environment stressing the ethical and philosophical aspects of the Yup ik relationship with the land ocean snow weather and environmental change among many other elements of the natural world At every gathering at least one elder repeated the Yup ik adage The world is changing following its people The Yup ik see environmental change as directly related not just to human actions such as overfishing or burning fossil fuels but also to human interactions The elders encourage young people to learn traditional rules and proper behavior to act with compassion and restraint in order to reverse negative impacts on their world They speak not only to educate young people on the practical skills they need to survive but also on the knowing and responsive nature of the world in which they live Publications Available for Free Distribution Guy Raymond McDole,Raymond Thurston
