Philosophical Topics ,2018      Freedom and the Human Person Richard Velkley,2007-12 In the Western tradition freedom and the human person have been at the center of philosophical theological moral and political debates since the origins of this tradition Although contemporary discourse betrays the multiplicity of these roots the necessary historical perspective for evaluating them is almost always lacking even in scholarly studies The terms freedom and person carry such overwhelming force in the modern world that the critical distance required for grasping what is at stake in using them is extremely hard to gain The present collection seeks to contribute toward finding that distance by making the tradition of thought more a living reality and not an object of arid analyses Unlike most collections the present one transcends disciplinary boundaries as it acknowledges the interconnectedness of philosophical theological and political arguments on these themes The contributors are prominent authorities in particular historical periods or in figures in Western thought and they treat approaches to freedom and the human person in ancient Greek biblical medieval and modern sources although the major emphasis is on the thought of leading philosophers Plato Boethius Aquinas Ockham Machiavelli Locke Kant Hegel Nietzsche Husserl et al Their essays bring forward profound contrasts in how freedom and personhood have been grounded and characterized notably the contrasts between groundings in natural reason and in supernatural revelation between premodern teleological thinking and modern thinking on self sovereignty without teleology and within modern thought between positions favoring individual autonomy and others securing freedom and its exercise in communal or traditional life Several of the papers shed light on the relations of freedom and personhood to the human powers of speech thought and judgment The contributors to the volume are Seth Benardete Michael Gillespie Leon Kass Robert B Pippin Robert Rethy John M Rist Brian J Shanley O P Susan Meld Shell Robert Sokolowski Eleonore Stump Nathan Tarcov and Michael P Zuckert with Jesse Covington and James Thompson Richard Velkley former professor of philosophy at the Catholic University of America is Celia Scott Weatherhead Professor of Philosophy at Tulane University He is author of Freedom and the End of Reason On the Moral Foundation of Kant's Critical Philosophy and Being after Rousseau Philosophy and Culture in Question
