

THE FIRST
BOOK of MOSES,
CALLED GENESIS.

The INTRODUCTION.

MOSES in effect declarerh three things which are in this book chiefly to be considered. First, that the world, and all things therein were created by God; and that man being placed in this great tabernacle of the world to behold Gods wonderful works, and to praise his name for the infinite graces wherewith he had endowd him, fell willingly from God through disobedience; who yet for his own mercies sake, restor'd him to life, and confin'd him in the same by his promise of Christ to come, by whom he should overcome Satan, Death and Hell. Secondly, that the wicked, unthankful of Gods most excellent benefits, remained still in their wickedness, and so falling most horribly from sin to sin, provok'd God, who by his preachers called them continually to repentance, at length to destroy the whole world. Thirdly, He affirmeth us by the examples of Abraham, Isaac, Jacob and the rest of the Patriarchs, that his mercies never fail them, whom he chooseth to be his church, and to profess his name on earth: but in all their afflictions, and persecutions, he ever assisteth them, sendeth comfort and delivereth them. And because the beginning, increase, preservation and success thereof might be only attributed to God, Moses sheweth by the examples of Cain, Abel, Esau and others, which were noble in mans judgment, that this church dependeth not on the estimation and nobility of the world, and all by the favour of them, which have at all times worshipp'd him purely according to his word; that it standeth not in the multitude, but in the poor and despis'd, in the small flock and little number; that man in his wisdom might be confounded, and the name of God praised for ever.

C H A P. I.

1 The creation of heaven and earth. 3 of the light, 6 of the firmament, 9 of the earth separated from the waters, 11 and made fruitful, 14 of the sun, moon, and stars, 20 of fish and fowl, 24 of beasts and cattle, 26 Of man in the image of God. 29 Also the appointment of food.

IN the beginning God created the heaven and the earth.

2 And the earth was without form and void, and darkness was upon the face of the deep: and the spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters.

3 ¶ And God said, Let there be light; and there was light.

4 And God saw the light that it was good: and God divided the light from the darkness.

5 And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night: and the evening and the morning were the first day.

6 ¶ And God said, Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters.

7 And God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament, from the waters which were above the firmament: and it was so.

8 And God called the firmament Heaven: and the evening and the morning were the second day.

9 ¶ And God said, Let the waters under the heaven be gathered together unto one place, and let the dry land appear: and it was so.

10 And God called the dry land Earth, and the gathering together of the waters called he Seas: and God saw that it was good.

11 ¶ And God said, Let the earth bring forth grass, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit-tree yielding fruit after his kind, whose seed is in it: and it was so.

12 And the earth brought forth grass, and herb yielding seed after his kind, and the tree yielding fruit, whose seed was in it: and God saw that it was good.

13 And the evening and the morning were the third day.

14 ¶ And God said, Let there be lightes in the firmament of the heaven, to divide the day from the night: and let them be for signs and for seasons and for days and years.

15 And let them be for lightes in the firmament of the heaven, to give light upon the earth: and it was so.

16 And God made two great lightes; the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night: he made the stars also.

17 And God set them in the firmament of the heaven, to give light upon the earth,

18 And to rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness, and God saw that it was good.

19 And the evening and the morning were the fourth day.

First Of Moses Called Genesis:

The First Book of Moses, Called Genesis. [Followed by the Other Books of the Old Testament.], 1865 The First Book of Moses Called Genesis Archibald Henry Sayce, 1907 The First Book of Moses, Called Genesis Steven Rose, 2010-12-01 Genesis covers some of the most famous stories of all time including the garden of Eden Noah's Ark and Cain and Abel Using the emergence of the people of Israel as a starting point it tells the story of the beginning of the world as ancient writers understood it The text is introduced by Steven Rose The First Book of Moses Called Genesis A. Smith, ed. by C.J. Ellicott. (Comm. for sch.)*. Charles John Ellicott (bp. of Gloucester), 1885 The First Boke of Moses called Genesis Anonymous, 2021-04-26 The First Boke of Moses called Genesis is a foundational text that explores the beginnings of the world humanity and the Israelite people through a rich tapestry of narratives poetic layers and theological insights This work is notable for its intricate blend of mythic storytelling and moral teachings set against the backdrop of an ancient Near Eastern context The literary style is characterized by its rhythmic cadences and vivid imagery engaging readers in profound reflections on creation sin and covenant The text serves not only as a religious scripture but also as a vital historical document encapsulating a worldview that informs much of Western thought The author rendered anonymous through history likely represents a collective voice reflecting the diverse oral traditions of ancient communities This context suggests that the narratives contained within Genesis were shaped by various cultural historical and theological influences aiming to convey moral lessons and a sense of identity to the Israelite people The anonymity may also reflect a deliberate choice allowing the text to transcend individual authorship and resonate broadly within the community it served I highly recommend The First Boke of Moses called Genesis to anyone interested in the intersection of literature theology and history Its timeless themes and profound questions about existence continue to inspire provoke thought and challenge readers to grapple with their understanding of beginnings and the nature of the divine
