Forging Identities Zoya Hasan,1994 In the Indian context Forging Identities Zoya Hasan,2019-03-11 This volume challenges the assumption that Muslims in India constitute a homogeneous community Focusing specifically on gender issues the contributors instead locate the Muslim womens community within the social economic and political developments that have taken place in the subcontinent pre and post Independence in order to examine how the Forging Identities in the Prehistory of Old Europe J. Chapman,2020 Balkan prehistory conjures up images of the Exotic and the Other in comparison with the better known prehistory of Western Europe often written in unfamiliar languages about lesser known places Combined with the information revolution in archaeology these factors have meant that no new synthesis of Old Europe has been written in the last 20 years This has left a backlog of rich settlement data and object rich landscapes which have rarely been presented in Forging Identities Zoya Hasan,1996 An Archaeology of Colonial Identity Gavin

Identities Under Construction Pamela Dickey Young,Heather Shipley,2020-07-23 Growing numbers of young adults are either nonreligious or spiritual but not religious but this does not signal a lack of interest in religion and meaning making Though the lexicon describing sexuality and gender is quickly evolving young people do not yet have satisfactory language to describe their fluid religious and spiritual identities In Identities Under Construction Pamela Dickey Young and Heather Shipley undertake a focused study of youth sexual religious and gender identity construction Drawing from survey responses and interviews with nearly five hundred participants they reveal that youth today consider their identities fluid and open to change Young people do not limit themselves to singular identity categories experiencing the choice of one religion of maleness or femaleness or of a fixed sexuality as confining Although they recognize various forces at work in identity construction parents peers the internet they regard themselves as the authors of their own identities For most of the young adults in the study even those who are most traditionally religious religious opinions and values should adapt to changing social mores to ensure that people are not judged for their sexual choices or identities Further they are not judgmental of others choices even if they would not make these choices for themselves Engaging religion and sexuality studies in new ways Identities Under Construction calls for a new grammar of religion that better captures lived realities at a time when religious choice has broadened beyond choosing a single organized religious tradition Concepts of Culture Adam Muller,2005 How do we define culture In this volume Adam Muller brings together contributions from established and emerging scholars in a number of different disciplines who each examine the concept of culture as it is understood and deployed within their respective fields Gender and Community Vrinda Narain,2001-01-01 These issues are significant not only for Muslim women in India but also in the broader context of the accommodation of cultural diversity in pluralist democracies BOOK JACKET Forging Identities Paulina Suchowska-Ducke,Samantha Scott Reiter,Helle Vandkilde,2015 With a strong emphasis on data the two volumes of this book demonstrate that mobility was essential to the European Bronze Age by exploring the shared cultural expression of Bronze Age societies in contrast to their simultaneous development of new local and regional characteristics During this seminal poque cultural and social formations of an entirely new kind and magnitude came to characterize Europe The intense and dynamic relations between local and large scale change processes coincided with increased mobility in different domains and forms forging new identities and shaping the emergence of Europe as a distinct cultural zone Through over fifty essays by leading Bronze Age scholars the reader engages with cultural mobility and connectivity and the ways in which these forces affected and transformed human behaviour Sex and Social Justice Martha C. Nussbaum,2000-08-24 Growing out of Nussbaum s years of work with an international development agency connected with the United Nations and informed by her study of Aristotle and the Stoics and the modern liberal thinkers Kant and Mill this collection charts a feminism that is deeply concerned with the urgent needs of women who live in hunger and illiteracy or under unequal legal systems Sex and Social Justice will interest a wide readership because of the public importance of the topics Nussbaum addresses and the generous insight she shows in dealing with these issues These essays offer incisive reflections by one of our most important living philosophers Seminar ,2001 Forging Southeastern Identities Gregory A. Waselkov,Marvin T. Smith,2017-03-31 Forging Southeastern Identities explores the many ways archaeologists and ethnohistorians define and trace the origins of Native Americans collective social identity "A Dream of Stone" Michael D. Garval,2004 With democratization of fame in the wake of the French Revolution writers enjoyed ever greater celebrity status But in nineteenth century France the availability and perceived impermanence of such renown cheapened it and prompted longing for enduring fame exemplified by monuments commemorative sculptural or architectural works helping a nation in flux define itself its past and anticipated future Within this cultural climate there evolved an ideal of great writers and their work as immortal that envisioned literary greatness through the metaphor of monuments and monumentality study draws upon wide ranging evidence from journalism to poetry caricature to statuary Focusing on the lives work and fame of Honore de Balzac George Sand and Victor Hugo it uncovers the salient features and traces the rise and fall of this monumentalizing vision of literary greatness largely forgotten today yet so central to nineteenth century French culture North Carolina State University Identity Jonathan Rutherford,1998 This collection of essays addresses the issues and concerns raised by the emphasis on society not as a series of homogeneous interlocking blocks but as a plethora of different sometimes overlapping and often conflicting communities Reflecting for example on the experience of the GLC s attempt to create a new majority of minorities and on the clash of values and beliefs over The Satanic Verses these pieces explore both the opportunities and problems presented by the growing diversity of communities cultures and identities in contemporary society Topics covered include consumerism and the impact of green politics racism and psychoanalysis ethics and values AIDS and citizenship and feminism and age Forging Identities Zoya Hasan,1994-09-20 This volume challenges the assumption that Muslims in India constitute a homogeneous community Focusing specifically on gender issues the contributors instead locate the Muslim women s community wit Place, Memory, Identities Roy Boland,2004
