

END TIME CITY

Photographs by Michael Ackerman

There's a completely raw, honest feel, visceral engagement with the city. Almost every night that I spend in Beirut I would go to sleep with, very dangerous to wake up and have another chance to absorb what was there and connect with it. The city of Beirut is an eternal combination of holy land and nightmare. It is a very holy place to people and every day they come there by the hundreds, or thousands. It's a never-ending nightmare. At the same time it's such a dark place where death is ever present. There's just this ironic check to it, a beautiful irony.
