Faith And Knowledge:

Faith and Knowledge John Hick, 1957 Faith and Knowledge John Hick, 1970 Faith at the Frontiers of Knowledge Kenneth R. Ross, 1998 Unity of knowledge is not easily achieved in today's Africa where often there is little conscious interaction between traditional beliefs Christian faith and modern secularity The challenge is taken up in this book as scholars from a variety of disciplines wrestle with the relation of faith and science at the frontiers of knowledge The results are important alike for the integrity of faith for scientific advance and for the attainment of creative cultural unity in society Readers with such concerns at heart will find much food for thought as they traverse the broad frontiers explored in these wide ranging essays Christian Faith and Life , 1926 Faith, Reason, and Beyond Reason Mark J. Boone, 2024-07-16 The relationship between faith and reason is multifaceted Faith transcends reason in that it is more than reason alone can contain or fully guarantee yet it is neither unreasonable nor something to which reason is irrelevant and reason says some pretty fine things about it This volume updates nine previously published articles on faith and reason by a Christian philosopher who has been studying these matters for two decades alongside one new essay and a philosophical dialogue These articles explain and integrate key ideas on faith and reason including Alvin Plantinga's account of how Christian belief can be knowledge even without evidence defenses of faith from Augustine and William James accounts of empirical evidence for faith from different world religions the distinction between faith and sight in the New Testament the structure of the evidence for the authority of the Bible the idea that faith transcends reason because some articles of faith are beyond human comprehension even if we have evidence that they are true and the nature of faith as a total commitment beyond what the evidence alone can guarantee Religion and Law, Showing: that Religion is Not Faith, But Pure Knowledge ... Solomon Joseph Silberstein, 1887 The New Schaff-Herzog Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge Johann Jakob Herzog, Albert Hauck, Samuel Macauley Jackson, Charles Colebrook Sherman, George William Gilmore, 1909 The Faith , 1912 The Interpretation of Religious Experience John Watson, 1924 Christian Ethics: Special part: pt. 1, Individual ethics, tr. from the author's German ed. by William Affleck; pt. 2, Social ethics, tr. from the author's German ed. by Sophia Taylor Hans Martensen, 1882 Rethinking Faith Antonio Cimino, Gert-Jan van der Heiden, 2018-05-31 Heidegger has often been considered as the proponent of the end of metaphysics in the post Hegelian philosophy due to his persistent attempts to overcome the onto-theological framework of traditional metaphysics Yet this dismissal of metaphysical theological and religious motives is deeply ambiguous since new forms of metaphysical and religious experience re-emerge in his philosophical works Heidegger shares this ambiguous relation to the notions of faith and religion with authors such as Nietzsche and Wittgenstein whose works are also marked by a critique of metaphysics and by a characteristic rethinking of the role of faith and religion In fact all three still remain among other things reference points for contemporary philosophical debates relating to the phenomenon of religion and faith Rethinking Faith explores how the phenomena of religion and faith are present in the works of Heidegger Nietzsche and Wittgenstein and how these phenomena are brought into play in their discussion of the classical metaphysical motives they criticize Faith, Reason, and Theosis Aristotle Papanikolaou, George E. Demacopoulos, 2023-10-03 Theosis shapes contemporary Orthodox theology in two ways positively and negatively In the positive sense contemporary Orthodox theologians made theosis the thread that bound together the various aspects of theology in a coherent whole and also interpreted patristic texts which experienced a renaissance in the twentieth century even in Orthodox theology In the negative sense contemporary theologians used theosis as a triumphalistic club to beat down Catholic and Protestant Christians claiming that they rejected theosis in favor of either a rationalistic or fideistic approach to Christian life The essays collected in this volume move beyond this East West divide by examining the relation between faith reason and theosis from Orthodox Catholic and Protestant perspectives A variety of themes are addressed such as the nature grace debate and the relation of philosophy to theology through engagement with such diverse thinkers as Thomas Aquinas John Wesley Meister Eckhart Dionysius the Areopagite Symeon the New Theologian Panayiotis Nellas Vladimir Lossky Martin Luther Martin Heidegger Sergius Bulgakov John of the Cross Delores Williams Evagrius of Pontus and Hans Urs von Balthasar The essays in this book are situated within a current thinking on theosis that consists of a common albeit minimalist affirmation amidst the flow of differences The authors in this volume contribute to the historical theological task of complicating the contemporary Orthodox narrative but they also continue the theological achievement of thinking about theosis so that all Christian traditions may be challenged to stretch and shift their understanding of theosis even amidst an ecumenical celebration of the gift of participation in the life of God The Person of Christ Philip Schaff, 1880

Johnson's Universal Cyclopædia, 1894 The Sum of Saving Knowledge. With Introduction and Notes, by Rev. John Macpherson David DICKSON (Professor of Divinity at Edinburgh and DURHAM (James) Covenanting Divine.), 1871

Confessing and Commending the Faith Alan P.F. Sell, 2006-09-01 Since Christianity is a way and not simply a theory commending the faith to others is an activity in which every Christian participates Confessing and Commending the Faith discusses the presuppositions which underlie the intellectual commendation of Christianity in the face of the philosophical challenges of the present day Following his earlier books John Locke and the Eighteenth Century Divines and Philosophical Idealism and Christian Belief Alan Sell proposes a way of proceeding with Christian apologetics in the twenty first century He discusses what Christians wish to proclaim asks whether these claims are reasonable and examines what is involved in the intellectual commendation of the Christian faith Confessing and Commending the Faith makes extensive use of the historical tradition of apologetics and brings this work to bear on contemporary questions such as the meaning use and reference of religious language and the question of transcendence in relation to history Alan Sell argues that if the intellectual commendation of Christianity's claim to truth is to be viable contemporary apologetics must draw upon reason revelation and experience to do justice to Christianity's basic confession of Christ as Saviour and Lord The Expository Times, 1919

The Quest for Truth F. Leroy Forlines, 2001 This invaluable tool seriously discusses profound truths that apply to every facet of life Biblical truth should be made applicable to the total personality The inescapable questions of life are answered from the standard of God's authoritative Word
