massacred civilians in what became one of the worst terror attacks in modern history and the most lethal day for the Jewish people since the Holocaust A radically passionate work of investigative journalism and political critique by acclaimed Haaretz reporter Lee Yaron 10 7 chronicles the massacre that ignited a war through the stories of more than 100 civilians These stories are the products of extensive interviews with survivors the bereaved and first responders in Israel and beyond The victims run the gamut from left wing kibbutzniks and Burning Man esque partiers to radical right wingers from Bedouins and Israeli Arabs to Thai and Nepalese guest workers peace activists elderly Holocaust survivors refugees from Ukraine and Russia pregnant women and babies At a time when people are seeking a deeper understanding of the history of the Israeli Palestinian conflict and how internal political turmoil in Israel has affected it they predominantly encounter perspectives from the powerful from politicians and military officers 10 7 takes a fresh approach offering answers through the stories of everyday people those who lived tenuously on the border with Gaza Yaron profiles victims from a wide range of communities depicting the fullness of their lives not just their final moments to honor their memories and reveal the way the attack ripped open Israeli society and put the entire Middle East on the precipice of disaster Each chapter begins with a portrait of a community interweaving history with broader political analysis of the Israeli Palestinian conflict to provide context for the narratives that follow Ultimately 10 7 shows that the tragedy is much greater than the violence of the attacks and in fact extends back through the entire Netanyahu era which propagated a false image of Israel as a technologically advanced militarily formidable powerhouse so essential to the region that it could continue to ignore and undermine Palestinian statehood indefinitely
