Firefall Mona Van Duyn, 1993 Mona Van Duyn is now Poet Laureate of the United States Her most recent book Near Changes was awarded the Pulitzer Prize in poetry for 1991 Her new collection Firefall is splendidly varied witty moving sometimes astonishing As Howard Nemerov said of her last book It is not only that the best of her poems teach us so much about life but that life over a long time teaches us the truth of these poems From the brief poems she calls minimalist sonnets to the powerful long poems Falls and Delivery both recalling incidents from childhood and youth the work in this extraordinary book is that of a poet reaching the depths and heights of her own talent A companion volume to this one If It Be Not I Collected Poems 1959-1982 restores to print in one substantial book all of her work from Merciful Disguises and Letters from a Father Selected Poems of Mona Van Duyn Mona Van Duyn, 2008-12-30 This generous selection of Mona Van Duyn's distinguished award winning work spans four decades Beginning with her classic Valentines to the Wide World 1959 encompassing the intimate voice of Bedtime Stories 1972 and the moving Letters from a Father 1982 crowned by the life spanning Firefall 1993 Selected Poems reacquaints us with a poet whose ear is keenly tuned to the music of nature and human conversation In lively and varied forms from her minimalist sonnets to her magisterial longer pieces Van Duyn captures a multiplicity of worlds within her world in a tone inflected by both Midwestern pragmatism and a deep metaphysical intelligence As she contemplates the act of reading in bed a Rhenish sculpture in the Cloisters or the loss of her mother the poet goes beyond context to discover consciousness an expression of the larger ideas and emotions finally the art in the smallest details of our lives Firefall Heather Lang-Cassera, 2025-04-22 Firefall by Heather Lang Cassera whispers to us the urgency of climate change In hushed tones lyrical free verse and cyclical pantoums evoke the diminishing and intensifying seasons We might look for comfort in the occasional rhyming couplets in the evocative syntax in the breathtaking imagery that portrays the beauty of this world yet these ecopoems require us to parse out seeming dualities fire and flood repetition and redundancy vulnerable witness and autonomous self Exploring the complexity of language in advocacy and activism both the tangible effects and the dangers of mere performance Firefall quietly begs us to consider the wisdom of our own hands as a birth cry a death breathing an intangible sun a heap of inconsolable hope available only from yesterdays as well as the ways in which each voice is a comet electric Encyclopedia of American Poetry: The Twentieth Century Eric L. Haralson, 2014-01-21 The Encyclopedia of American Poetry: The Twentieth Century contains over 400 entries that treat a broad range of individual poets and poems along with many articles devoted to topics schools or periods of American verse in the century Entries fall into three main categories poet entries which provide biographical and cultural contexts for the author's career entries on individual works which offer closer explication of the most resonant poems in the 20th century canon and topical entries which offer analyses of a given period of literary production school thematically constructed category or other verse tradition that historically has been in dialogue with the poetry of the United States Selected the loss of my mother I decided to celebrate her life I hope this book can help others who have lost someone special overcome the grief and sorrow of loss Joyce Fizzolio died of lung cancer on July 8 2004 She was a child a sister a wife a mother a grandmother and a well known and respected voice teacher My mother studied music at Wayne State University and she graduated from the Royal Conservatory of Music of Toronto She was a coloratura soprano and teacher Her concert debut was with the American Symphony Orchestra of New York My mother performed in twenty three musicals and she made her Broadway debut as a feature soloist at the Palace Theater in New York City She taught singing lessons for several years and she was a member of several music organizations My mother s creative outlet was her voice My creative outlet is my writing During my time of grieving and loss I found comfort in writing poetry I was amazed at how my writing changed as I started to channel my grief and sadness into learning more about myself and my purpose and my healing We are all born with gifts and we must look at our gifts to bring forward the memory of someone special This is my gift and I hope you enjoy the poetry If you knew my mother I hope it gives you a smile to remember what a dynamic and wonderful person she was in life
