CrossTown Loren W. Cooper, 2017-11-14 Endeavor Award Finalist A sorcerer for hire investigates his mentor's death in a story of murder and revenge set in a world where anything is possible Kirkus Reviews Zethus is a sorcerer a self-described spiritual thug for hire He makes his living in CrossTown a place where the manyworld hypothesis of modern physics manifests itself where possibilities and probabilities overlap Caught up in a web of intrigue as he investigates the death of his master Corvinus and pursued by agents that want to erase all knowledge of Corvinus's work Zethus discovers that the key to his master's murder lies in the last project he had pursued before his death The roots of this project lie deep in the past at the origin of CrossTown's fractured reality Once he understands the stakes Zethus must make the dangerous journey to the cradle of history The price he must pay to find the answers he seeks will threaten everything he holds dear including his own humanity Thanks to the mind-bending physics theory made real in Cooper's novel that every decision we make creates a new universe Zethus is able to conduct an investigation into his mentor's murder that leads him from the Irish folkloric land of Faerie to the horror novel NightTown which is populated by vampires to the science-fictional TechTown suffused with futuristic technology Publishers Weekly
