The day throughout has been one of excitement & suspense. A banner has been thrown up at Suwata for the digger headquarters, & a flag with the Southern Cross hoisted with some ceremony. - Several men in white have been marching up & down the road. - A notice has been issued from the Camp for all lights to be extinguished within 10 minutes on pain of being fined when the torch being found out. - Reports of all kinds have flown abroad. The Governor was coming up with 600 troops & a park of artillery, the diggers and were going out in strong force to intercept them. The Camp was to be stormed. - and many other rumours equally vague & alarming.

... Amongst the natives, especially the natives, but on topic of conversation engages the attention of diggers & stockmen. - Those whose ~~concern~~ means enable them see sending their families away, and which others, whose power compels to keep their wives & families amidst the sea of uncertainty, danger are awaiting the approach of events. - with feeling bachelors may bless their happy fortune in not being troubled with.
