Celine-Marie Pascale,2021-07-28 For the majority of Americans hard times have long been a way of life Some work multiple low wage jobs others face the squeeze of stagnant wages and rising costs of living Sociologist Celine Marie Pascale talked with people across Appalachia at the Standing Rock and Wind River reservations and in the bustling city of Oakland California Their voices offer a wide range of experiences that complicate dominant national narratives about economic struggles Yet Living on the Edge is about more than individual experiences It s about a nation in a deep economic and moral crisis It s about the long standing collusion between government and corporations that prioritizes profits over people over the environment and over the nation s well being It s about how racism sexism violence and the pandemic shape daily experience in struggling communities And ultimately it s a book about hope that lays out a vision for the future as honest as it is ambitious Most people in the book are not progressives none are radicals They re hard working people who know from experience that the current system is unsustainable Across the country people described the need for a living wage accessible health care immigration reform and free education Their voices are worth listening to

Zero Edge,2014-12-30 We are here at an impasse ladies and gentlemen I have come to realize no matter how much there is to cover in the ground someone is willing to burn it first to get their facts straightened out There are those who bring crops to the harvest as there are those who will burn it so no one gets what they deserve their rights Humanity at its naturalist state is one we forget so easily for we throw away the basic rights to live to speak freely and to think freely However it is such that I even in my terms I had been rebuked denied and rebutted over certain characteristics I have yet to even demonstrate There are times where I had bit my tongue in silence and in reservation while at times I had to demonstrate I am a leader A leader that leads his people in this great country I proudly lead to great times A leader that follows his people s hardships and makes it aware they are not the problem but they are the solution I am the law in my ways but in your ways you also have become your laws For this this great country founded from different law abiding citizens at their time decided to make a change and well so did I This is my change the fact that I remained in two terms with the office I did my job to lead you to great opportunities and better tomorrows I helped made the laws that you all follow today but who I am remains to be unflinchingly true I am the maker of laws but I am a friend first The law is where I might not stand firmest but it is where I know I have my chances of making what is right and what is wrong For there is no black or white just the greyness that makes it happening Should you choose to follow these paths only then you will know you have done what you had set out to do Special Edge , 02:00 the Cobbler Edge, Zero,2014-04-20 They say to take a walk out to the wild side Let everything you know and think of scatter into places where it has never been and be free of where it will roam As it is when we do leave the home we once knew A place there a place here and how far we will walk is up to how far the soles of our feet can make from a distance Fears and hopes are what will hold you hand in hand to guide you with each step not looking back as they are your guardians Oh what a unique sense of giving yourself up in the direction you are unaware of Now walk home dare I say walk home as it is very familiar of what you had done before in the back of your hand For I shall not tell that you will not encounter thorns cliffs or puddles of which you have will to cross over They alone are not obstacles rather they are bridges you had built upon your path you have set yourself with So long as you see them as this you will make it back Or will you Learn that when we do go home it is not in the sense that we will see the door open freely for us As it has to be opened again by our hands and make the moment feel like we are all alive This is what it means to go home to know where we once were the shadows of our doubt is not to be cast upon just light the way so wayward traveler has your journey been satisfying to the beat of your soul that call out to you in the night when you dream or are you still walking aimlessly in hope that you will dream again Edge George G.
