Feminisms and Womanisms, 2007 Theorizing Feminisms: a Reader Elizabeth and Haslanger Hackett (Sally), 2013

The Education Feminism Reader Lynda Stone, Gail Masuchika Boldt, 1994 This anthology includes some of the most important and influential essays in feminist education theory since the late 70s Contributors are drawn from traditional liberal feminists radical postmodern theorists and those with psychological philosophical and political agendas The Feminist Reader Catherine Belsey, Jane Moore, 1989 Second revised and expanded edition of an anthology of essays for undergraduates of women's literature and feminist theory Includes Toni Morrison's discussion of a Hemingway short story Line Pouchard on Radclyffe Hall Marjorie Garber on Elvis and cross dressing and Diane Elam on the relation between feminism and post modernism Feminisms Redux Diane Price Herndl, 2009 Thinking Women Navaneetha Mokkil, Shefali Jha, 2015-04-06 The reader attempts to see the workings of gender in day to day lives the site for complicated gender negotiations The selection is wide ranging including creative writing in English and translations from the other Indian languages autobiographies newspaper articles theoretical pieces and visual material like advertisements and cartoons The editors foreground differences and see how vectors like caste class sexuality and religion complicate the experiences of gender The reader will open up issues for discussion and offer a different perspective without providing any neat resolutions

Feminisms Robyn R. Warhol, Diane Price Herndl, 1997 In the landmark 1991 edition of Feminisms Robyn Warhol and Diane Price Herndl assembled the most comprehensive collection of American and British feminist literary criticism ever to be published In this revised edition the editors have updated the volume in keeping with the expanded parameters of feminist literary discourse With the inclusion of more than two dozen new essays along with a major reorganization of the sections in which they appear Warhol and Price Herndl have again established the measure for representing the latest developments in the field of feminist literary theory Believing that the feminist movement can only move forward where difference commands attention not dismissal or negativism they have continued the original collection s mission of providing a multiplicity of perspectives and approaches This anthology contains three new sections Conflict Gaze and Practice and includes more selections by and about women of color and lesbians Aimed at academics and the general public alike this collection is an indispensable guide to the range of practice on campus today in the field of feminist literary criticism A Readers Guide to Contemporary Feminist Literary Criticism Maggie Humm,2015-07-17 This introduction to feminist literary criticism in its international contexts discusses a broad range of complex critical writings and then identifies and explains the main developments and debates within each approach Each chapter has an easy to use format comprising an introductory overview an explanation of key themes and techniques a detailed account of the work of specific critics and a summary which includes critiques of the approach Each chapter is accompanied by a guide to the primary texts and further reading "We Must Be Up and Doing" Teresa C. Zackodnik,2010-03-11 African American women have been up and doing for their communities for as long as they have been in the United States and their ability to resist the institution of slavery was central to the survival of African Americans This anthology gives readers access to African American feminist thought in its foundational period by drawing together key documents from the late 1820s through the 1920s Going beyond a focus on the greats of black feminism to include lesser known figures We Must Be Up and Doing offers a broad and contextualized look at the critical mass early black feminism achieved by including a variety of genres such as the spiritual autobiography the platform speech periodical articles pamphlets fiction and excerpts from convention and conference proceedings

Feminist Theory Reader Carole McCann,Seung-kyung Kim,Emek Ergun,2020-09-16 The fifth edition of the Feminist Theory Reader assembles readings that present key aspects of the conversations within intersectional US and transnational feminisms and continues to challenge readers to rethink the ways in which gender and its multiple intersections are configured by complex overlapping and asymmetrical global local configurations of power The feminist theoretical debates in this anthology are anchored by five foundational concepts gender difference women s experiences the personal is political and especially intersectionality which are integral to contemporary feminist critiques The anthology continues to center the voices of transnational feminist scholars with new essays giving it a sharper focus on the materiality of gender injustices racisms ableisms colonialisms and especially global capitalisms Theoretical discussions of translation politics cross border solidarity building ecofeminism reproductive justice MeToo indigenous feminisms and disability studies have been incorporated throughout the volume With the new essays and the addition of a new editor the Feminist Theory Reader has been brought fully up to date and will continue to be a touchstone for women s and gender studies students as well as academics in the field for many years to come

Provocations Susan Bordo, 2015-03-21 The first collection of its kind Provocations A Transnational Reader in the History of Feminist Thought is historically organized and transnational in scope highlighting key ideas transformative moments and feminist conversations across national and cultural borders Emphasizing feminist cross talk transnational collaborations and influences and cultural differences in context this anthology heralds a new approach to studying feminist history Provocations includes engaging historically significant primary sources by writers of many nationalities in numerous genres from political manifestos to theoretical and cultural analysis to poetry and fiction These texts range from those of classical antiquity to others composed during the Arab Spring and represent Asia the Middle East Latin America Western Europe and the United States Each section begins with an introductory essay that presents central ideas and explores connections among readings placing them in historical national and intellectual contexts and concluding with questions for discussion and reflection

French Feminist Theory Dani Cavallaro, 2004-03-01 French Feminist Theory offers an introduction to the key concepts and themes in French feminist thought both the materialist and the linguistic psychoanalytic traditions These are explored through the work of a wide range of theorists Simone de Beauvoir Chantal Chawaf Helene Cixous Catherine Clement Christine Delphy Marguerite Duras Colette Guillaumin Madeleine Gagnon Luce Irigaray Julia Kristeva Nicole Claude Mathieu Michele Montreley Monique Plaza Paola Tabet and Monique Wittig The book outlines the philosophical and political diversity of French feminism setting developments in the field in the particular cultural and social contexts in which they have emerged and unfolded

Feminist Literary Theory Mary Eagleton, 2010-12-20 Now in its third edition Feminist Literary Theory remains the most comprehensive single volume introduction to a vital and diverse field Fully revised and updated to reflect changes in the field over the last decade Includes extracts from all the major critics critical approaches and theoretical positions in contemporary feminist literary studies Features a new section Writing Glocal which covers feminism s dialogue with postcolonial global and spatial studies Revised chapter introductions provide readers with helpful contextual information while extensive notes offer recommendations for further reading

Contemporary French Feminism Kelly Oliver, Lisa Walsh, 2004-09-23 Have we entered a historical moment of post feminism This volume presents a timely and convincing no These essays demonstrate that there is a new generation of French women who take up questions of equality and difference from a position distinct from either first or second wave feminism a position that often attempts to move beyond the binary of equality and or difference to a new form of the individual

Feminist Readings/feminists Reading Sara Mills, Lynne Pearce, 1996 As an introduction to feminist literary criticism which emphasizes the practical issues of applying these often wide ranging theories to particular texts this thoroughly revised and updated 2nd edition analyzes several schools of feminist thought Covers gynocriticism authentic realism Marxism with new chapters on lesbian feminist theory and post colonialism For professionals working in the fields of feminist literary theory women s studies and literary theory
