Delaiss,2023-12-22 In A Century of Dutch Manuscript Illumination L M J Delaiss takes readers on a detailed journey through the unique characteristics and historical significance of Dutch illumination during the late Middle Ages Unlike the luxury manuscripts produced for the royal courts of France and the dukes of Burgundy Dutch manuscripts developed their own artistic identity marked by an understated aesthetic and deeply spiritual undertones Delaiss emphasizes that while foreign influences from Cologne and France shaped this artistic tradition Dutch illumination maintained an originality that reflected the cultural and spiritual movements of the region particularly in the fifteenth century Despite not being as lavish as their European counterparts these manuscripts are rich in creativity and spiritual significance offering a distinct contrast to the grander more opulent styles of southern neighbors The book goes beyond a surface level appreciation of Dutch miniatures advocating for a more comprehensive study of these works within the broader context of bookmaking Delaiss argues that a new scholarly approach is needed to explore the interrelations between the format handwriting and decorative elements of these manuscripts which are intricately linked to their illuminations With gratitude to the many collectors institutions and scholars who contributed to this volume Delaiss offers an insightful exploration of Dutch manuscript illumination urging the academic community to recognize and appreciate its quiet but profound contributions to the art of medieval Europe This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1968     Silver Vessels of the Sasanian Period: Royal imagery Prudence Oliver Harper,1981     Throne of Wisdom Ilene H. Forsyth,2019-01-29 The wooden statue of the Mother and Child enthroned known as sedes sapientiae the Seat or Throne of Wisdom reached the brilliant culmination of its development as a genre of religious sculpture in the twelfth century As a visible expression of the mystery of Incarnation its iconography dated back to the early church Translated by the Romanesque sculptor into a fully plastic freestanding form its style conveys convincingly the medieval vision of humanity and divinity interfused The recent cleaning and restoration of a number of these wood carved figures of the Madonna in Majesty has now made possible a full appraisal of the genre Mrs Forsyth s discussion examines the character function iconography and history of the statues distinguishes types and regional styles considers their role within the broader context of medieval art and assesses their artistic merit Her register of principal examples includes 110 sculptures dating from twelfth century France some of which have never been published before 192 illustrations accompany the text Ilene H Forsyth is Associate Professor in the Department of the History of Art at the University of Michigan Originally published in 1972 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905
