Asian Diaspora Poetry in North America

Benzi Zhang,2007-12-12 Presenting a new way of reading that helps us discern some previously unnoticed or unnoticeable features of Asian diaspora poetry this volume highlights how poetry plays a significant role in mediating and defining cross cultural and transnational positions Asian diaspora poetry in North America is a rich body of poetic works that not only provide valuable material for us to understand the lives and experiences of Asian diasporas but also present us with an opportunity to examine some of the most important issues in current literary and cultural studies As a mode of writing across cultural and national borders these poetic works challenge us to reconsider the assumptions and meanings of identity nation home and place in a broad cross cultural context In recent postcolonial studies diaspora has been conceived not only as a process of migration in which people crossed and traversed the borders of different countries but also as a double relationship between different cultural origins With all its complexity and ambiguity associated with the experience of multi cultural mediation diaspora as both a process and a relationship suggests an act of constant repositioning in confluent streams that accommodate to multiple cultural traditions By examining how Asian diaspora poets maintain and represent their cultural differences in North America Zhang is able to seek new perspectives for understanding and analyzing the intrinsic values of Asian cultures that survive and develop persistently in North American societies

Chinese Diasporic Writers and Artists Kwok-kan Tam, Lily Li, 2025-09-10 This book presents new and original essays that capture the enigmatic and intriguing personal and imagined worlds of Chinese writers and artists in diaspora in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Including chapters on artist writers such as Gao Xingjian Dai Sijie Ha Jin and Hong Ying Tyrus Wong and Shen Wei the book explores personal cross cultural experiences through their literary and other artistic works reflecting on their cultural identity their native home and their new home the past and the present By writing filming and painting about their diaspora diasporic experience they are writing about their selves and the traumatic experience many of them have gone through in forgetting the past forgiving the damage and foreshadowing a future by re visioning their selves Their experience represents a generation s quest for an identity of being Chinese but culturally distanced from China As a study of cross cultural human experience through the lens of literature film and other arts this book will not only appeal to students and scholars of Chinese diaspora studies it will also appeal to those with an interest in Chinese literature film and culture
