Documentary Film in Pakistan Rahat Imran,2016-06-03 This book the first academic book on Pakistani documentary cinema traces the development of activist filmmaking practices in Pakistan which have emerged as a response to the consequences of religious fundamentalism extremism and violation of human rights Beginning with the period of General Zia ul Haq s Islamization process 1977 88 it discusses a selection of representative documentary films that have critically addressed and documented the various key transformations events and developments that have shaped Pakistan s socio political socio economic and cultural history Such activist filmmaking practice in Pakistan is today an influential factor in addressing the politics and negative and oppressive effects of the Islamization era discriminatory laws particularly gender discriminatory Sharia laws violation of human and citizen rights authoritarianism internal strife the spread of religious fundamentalism and the threat of Talibanization and oppressive tribal customs and traditions The contribution of Pakistani documentary filmmakers stands as a significant body of work that has served the cause of human rights promoting awareness and social change in Pakistan particularly regarding gender rights

Documentary Cinema in Israel-Palestine Shirly Bahar, 2021-07-01 Alongside the upsurge in violence that came with the downfall of the Oslo era in the early 2000s a new wave of documentaries emerged that centered on Palestinians and Mizrahim's Jews of Middle Eastern origins historical and lived experiences of pain and oppression across Israel Palestine and beyond The documentaries challenge the systemic removal of self represented Palestinian and Mizrahi pain from mainstream media and the public realm dominated by Israel This book explores how Palestinians and Mizrahim perform their long endured pain on screen Analysing key documentary films from the first decade of the 2000s Shirly Bahar offers a nuanced reading of the cinematic documentary corpus emerging from Israel Palestine as well Palestinians and Mizrahim's different and unequal yet interrelated forms of oppression and racialization under Israeli rule While pain sets them apart the documentary representations of pain of Palestinians and Mizrahim invite us to consider reconnection by focusing on the very relational nature of pain

Reorienting the Middle East Dale Hudson, Alia Yunis, 2024-01-16 Stories of desert landscapes cutting edge production facilities and lavish festivals often dominate narratives about film and digital media on the Arabian Peninsula However there is a more complicated history that reflects long standing interconnections between the Persian Gulf Arabian Sea and Indian Ocean Just as these waters are fluid spaces so too is the flow of film and digital media between cultures in East Africa Europe North Africa South Asia Southwest Asia and Southeast Asia Reorienting the Middle East examines past and contemporary aspects of film and digital media in the Gulf that might not otherwise be apparent in dominant frameworks Contributors consider oil companies that brought film exhibition to this area in the 1930s the first Indian film produced on the Arabian Peninsula in the late 1970s blackness in Iranian films the role of Western funding in reshaping stories Dubai's emergence in global film production uses of online platforms for performance art the development of film festivals and cinemas and short films made by citizens and migrants that turn a lens on racism sexism national identity and other rarely discussed social issues Reorienting the Middle East offers new methods to analyze the often neglected littoral spaces between nation states and regions and to understand the role of film and digital media in shaping dialogue between area studies and film and media studies Readers will find new pathways to rethink the limitations of dominant categories and frameworks in both fields
